Kiddush Committee News

Kiddush clean up is on a rotating basis, based on your last name. While we recognize that everyone in your group may not be available each Shabbat, we ask that you pitch in if you are assigned in that month so that the same people are not doing the clean-up each week. We all like kiddushes and we all make plans for lunch after shul so please be respectful of your fellow congregants by helping out during your assigned month if you are in shul.

Chesed Opportunities

CareOne

CareOne, the kosher rehabilitation and nursing center located at 544 Teaneck Road, 4 blocks south of Holy Name Hospital, is in need of volunteers to maintain the continuity of their Shabbos minyanim, which their residents look forward to each week.

We are joining with other local Shuls in trying to send over a handful of members on a weekly rotating basis to participate in the various minyanim throughout Shabbos. This will be coordinated directly by Rabbi Siev of CareOne.

This is a wonderful chesed opportunity for families to perform Bikur Cholim & mitzvot together while setting a valuable example for the entire community. Youth groups and a Kiddush will be provided. Thank you in advance to anyone who can help.

Please call Rabbi Siev and let him know which weeks you are available to attend, and if you would like to daven, lain, give a d'var Torah, be a Gabbai etc. Important: Please leave your contact information including your name, phone number and e-mail address so you can be notified of the details.

Mincha Friday night is 10 minutes after candle lighting, Shacharit Shabbat morning is at 9:00 a.m. and Mincha Shabbat afternoon and throughout the week is approximately the same time as in your own shul.

Rabbi Joseph Siev at (201) 287-8519 or jsiev@care-one.com

To join our Bikur Cholim group that visit residents at other times, please contact Laurie Kilimnick (201) 357-5681 or e-mail lauriesteckler@hotmail.com.

Tomchei Shabbos

We are in need of more volunteer drivers, several have made Aliyah and others have schedule conflicts. The time commitment is approximately an hour, on Wednesday nights. You do not need to commit to driving every week, we can fit you in once a month, bimonthly or what ever works for you. What better form of gemilus chasadim than to help out our neighbors who are down on their luck. If you have the time please respond to Steve Gutlove at s.gutlove@verizon.net

OU Job Board

I am writing to you today to ask for a very special kind of charity - but NOT in the form of money. We are living in a time when unemployment is not some unfortunate circumstance that only affects people you don't know. Friends, family members, people in your community -- these are the faces of unemployment today -- good, hardworking, well-qualified people struggling to support themselves and their families due to the current economic crisis. It is easy to sit back and feel helpless. But there IS something you can do.

The OU Job Board - <http://www.oujobs.org> - is a free public service website that publishes open positions in locations throughout the US, Canada and Israel, with thousands of visitors - including many from your own communities - each day. We are asking you to partner with us today, and send to jobs@ou.org any job opportunities you know of, whether available at your place of employment or through other contacts in your network.

This may require a bit of effort on your part, but keep in mind that Maimonides, the great Jewish sage and philosopher, taught that the highest level of charity is helping people help themselves. With your help, we can be an unbeatable team in this great and most important mitzvah.

Best Regards, Michael Rosner-International Director OU Job Board

Please make your tax-deductible donation before the end of the year or increase the amount of your existing pledge at <http://www.teaneckmikvah.com> or email teaneckmikvah@gmail.com. All pledges are payable over 5 years. The mikvah project is finally near completion, let us finish it together!

Web Guide To Israel Schools

Yeshiva University Center for the Jewish Future is providing a service for the Yeshiva High Schools, rabbis, parents, and seniors. We have created a web guide to Israel Schools, in which each school has self-evaluated various aspects of the Israel experience they provide. Each school's page gives an extensive view of the school, covering everything from the goals of the program to technical issues of housing and location. If the school is affiliated with the coveted S. Daniel Abraham Israel Program, it carries a YU emblem at the top of the school page. We hope that this website will be helpful to you and your families.

Access the site at <http://www.yu.edu/cjf/gis>

Your feedback on this site would be helpful. Please send your comments to GuidetoIsraelSchools@yu.edu
